

Ibrahim Munir Mustafa

- ❖ Ibrahim Munir was referred to in the past by the Egyptian Brotherhood as an Executive Bureau member of the Brotherhood's International Organization while an Egyptian news report identifies him as the Secretary-General of the International Organization and one of its founders in 1982 as well as a spokesman for the Brotherhood in London.
- ❖ Munir was sentenced to life imprisonment in Egypt in the 1950's in connection with the events following the attempted assassination of then Egyptian leader Gamal Abdel Nasser. Following his early release in 1975, Munir traveled and worked in the Gulf States on behalf of the Brotherhood following which he applied for and was granted political asylum in the UK.
- ❖ Munir is also known to be the general supervisor of the London-based Muslim Brotherhood publication known as the 'Risalat Al-Ikhwan' (Muslim Brotherhood Message).
- ❖ Munir drew international attention in 2010 when he was one of five members charged by Egyptian prosecutors with money laundering and raising funds abroad.
- ❖ In 1993 Munir headed with Essam el-Haddad Human Relief International, the association dissolved after a year.
